"WVU Student Arrested for Nighttime Burglary"

Officers of the Morgantown Police Department responded to a burglary in progress call at an apartment on Beechurst Avenue at 1:43 am this date. Within moments, an officer located a male matching the suspect's description a short distance away. The two female victims positively identified him as the suspect who had kicked in the back door of their residence, which entered into one of their bedrooms, and fled the scene shortly thereafter.

Kevin Carbine, a 21 year old WVU student from Boiling Springs, Pennsylvania, was arrested and charged with one count of Nighttime Burglary. He was placed in the Monongalia County Prisoner Processing Center to await arraignment in magistrate court. Kevin Carbine's motive remains undetermined. He was very intoxicated. The two victims were also WVU students. They were uninjured.

The Morgantown Police Department is committed to its goal of eliminating crime in our city. Citizens are encouraged to become a "Partner in Policing" by reporting suspected criminal activity to the Morgantown Police Department Communications Center at (304) 284-7522. If you need immediate police attention or a crime is in progress call 911.
